Key user stories and acceptance criteria:
- User Story 1.1: As an end user, I want to login with an account.
  - Acceptance criteria:
    - Users are able to login using an account that is in the database
- User Story 1.2: As an end user, I want to create a new project. I will be the product owner of the project.
  - Acceptance criteria:
    - Users are able to create new projects.
    - Users are able to add new members to the project.
- User Story 2.1: As a product owner, I want to create a new release plan under an existing project. A project can have multiple release plans.
  - Acceptance criteria:
    - Product owners are able to create a release plan which is then sent to the database.
    - Release plans are displayed to the product owners.
- User Story 2.2: As a product owner, I want to create high-level goals for a release plan
  - Acceptance criteria: Users are able to create high level plans in the platform.
- User Story 3.2: As a user, I want to create a new account to access the website:
  - Acceptance criteria:
    - Users are able to access the create account page.
    - Users are able to create an account and login with the account.
- User Story 4.3: As a user I would like to create sprints and add tasks to sprints
  - Acceptance criteria:
    - Users are able to create new sprints.
    - Users are able to add tasks to the sprints.
    - Users are able to view the sprints on the sprints page.

Known Problems:
- Sometimes there is a login error that occurs at the beginning (not being faced by everyone).
- The Release Summary button not working (fixed now)
- There is a bug with adding members to projects.

Product Backlog:
- User Story 1.3: As a product owner, I want to give access to the project to my team members.
  - Issue: There seems to be an issue on the backend leading to users not being able to be added to the database as collaborators.
